

Contribution ID : 29

Type : not specified

Conformal geodesics can not spiral

Wednesday, 21 September 2022 10:00 (30)

We show that conformal geodesics on a Riemannian manifold cannot spiral: there does not exist a conformal geodesic which becomes trapped in every neighbourhood of a point. This settles an outstanding open problem in General Relativity posed by Friedrich. This is joint work with Peter Cameron and Paul Tod.

Presenter(s) : DUNAJSKI, Maciej ( University of Cambridge )